George Washington Hall.

President William Anderson welcomes freshmen and new students at Honor Convocation in Dodd Auditorium.

Phil Wiggins and John Cephas demonstrate their own brand of blues music in the annual Blues festival, also held in Dodd Auditorium.

Blues singer John Cephas entertains the crowd.

Two upperclass students help out at freshmen orientation by serving drinks in Ball Circle.

Sophomore Brendan Casey acting crazy as usual.

Cedric Rucker prepares to "pig out" on a pile of popcorn.

Michelle Lesko helps the DeeJay entertain partying seniors

STUDENT LIFE

Ann Carter Lee Hall.

Freshmen Orientation

Various businesses in the area familiarized themselves with the new students by visiting the campus to hand out different paraphernalia.

Members of the Honor Council and the administration wait to address the freshmen at honor convocation.

At the end of orientation week, freshmen got a taste of weekend life at college through a dance in the Underground.

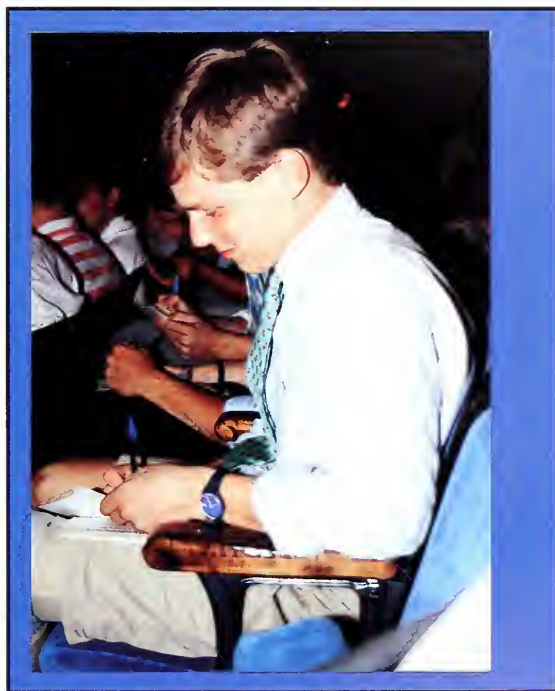

Freshman Lori Fitzgerald
"scopes" some guys.

Freshmen

ORIENTATION

Freshmen Tara Heaney, Devita Smith, Tracy Flemming, and Marlane White already feel comfortable with each other at orientation week's conclusion.

Here is just one of the many freshmen and transfer students who must sign the honor pledge before they are officially accepted as students.

The college mascot shows off his legs to Kings Dominion characters Astro and George Jetson.

Parents' Weekend

This is how mothers deal with embarrassment.

The fountain is a popular place for students.

Parents get first hand knowledge of their children's education.

Members of What's Next? prepare to entertain at Willard's Second Annual Rocktoberfest.

The drummer of What's Next? waits for the show to begin.

Rocktoberfest

The type of entertainment at Rocktoberfest certainly varies.

Juniors Stephanie Powers, Lisa Sellers, Jennifer Little, Rebecca Rowland, Christine Harrison, and Rita Plath are addicted to love.

These students take a break from dancing before they "melt" on the dance floor.

Halloweens isn't always fun and games, even if you're a clown.

Dorothy takes a break from her vigil to return to Kansas.

By day a Resident Assistant in Russell, by night the caped crusader.

The costumes at Halloweens were certainly varied in style.

One of the coal miners who had recently been on strike gave a lecture to students.

Students also took part in the entertainment in Dodd Auditorium.

Part of the MLK planning committee addresses the audience in Dodd.

ospel singers were a part of LK week.

Martin Luther King Jr. Week

Janelle White, president of the Black Student Association.

Another coal miner joins the lecture in the Great Hall.

Alcohol Awareness Week

Part of Alcohol Awareness Week involved students dressing in all white.

Students look over the refreshments served in Ball Circle.

The Battle of the Halls often demolished Miss Manner's table etiquette.

"At least it's not Seacobeck!"

Wrecked automobiles stressed the negative effects of drinking and driving.

Tom Deluca Hypnotist

Students also feel delusions of grandeur during Deluca's act.

Tom Deluca was voted National College Entertainer of the Year.

Student wait to be let into the Underground in time for Rosen's act.

Part of Tom Deluca's act involves tricking students into thinking they are naked.

Carl Rosen involves singing and joke telling in his creative act.

The bass guitarist for Buddhist Priest glows in the spotlight.

he Waxing Poetics entertain e crowd in the Great Hall.

Varied Performances

Hoi Polloi played for students in the Underground.

The Student Center's Great Hall was a popular place for both students and bands.

The Blues Festival

The Blues performers tuning up for the show.

Entertainers demonstrate how energetic the Blues actually is.

The saxophone, what's jazz without it?

Dean of Minority Affairs Art Books befriends the performers.

Muslim leader Dr. Muhammed speaks to students in Dodd Auditorium.

Melloni Cook looks on during the speech.

The lecture, held in GW, was well attended.

Muhammed

Members of the BSA joined Muhammed on stage.

Dean Art Books opened the lecture with some comments of his own.

A senior student toasts her good fortune at 100th night in the Great Hall.

Dancing and drinking were two main activities at 100th night, though the drinks were not always beer.

RD Val Lazarri and friends monitor the activity.

100th Night

Seniors take a break from the dancing to pose for the camera.

The Class Council held 100th night for seniors in the Great Hall, 100 days before graduation.

Jenny and Conan examine some of the displays on Campus Walk for Earth Day 1990.

Crystals and minerals were two big hits in 1990.

Student wrote various environmentally harmful items on a chalkboard.

Russell Cate and the Ecology Club made tie-dye's as part of the Earth Day celebration.

Even vegetarians took part in the Earth Day celebration/protest.

Consumer activist Ralph Nader lectures to students in Dodd Auditorium.

A reception in the Great Hall followed the lecture.

Nader is a nationally known figure.

Nader spoke to a large crowd in GW Hall.

Nader was very responsive to questions both during and after his speech.

The "C" Shop. Campus Drive. The amphitheater. For anyone not a senior, these words are rather distant, and for some, even unheard of. But, for the senior class, these phrases, and others, like the Pub, brought back memories of a previous school. A school without campus walk, the Student Center and the Underground. Underclassmen learned from seniors the meanings and connotations of those outdated words and associated them with the new ones. It worked just as it has since the college opened, the old familiarized the new.

Though the seniors did represent the last generation of a different college, they were not much different from any other graduating class. Students shared memories of the last four, though sometimes more, years. Realization came that they were not saying see-ya-later, but goodbye. The idea sank in that the jog from Russell to Willard to visit a friend was not actually as long as they had thought; at least, not as long as the trip from one state to another. Seniors accepted what being seniors actually meant: graduation.

Like at most institutions, be them high schools or grad schools, graduation brought a mixture of smiles, regrets, and anticipations. Future plans varied from graduate school to tackling the job market. Some were happy, some sad, some regretful, but everyone through another stepping stone in life.

ICE CREAM?

Soft-serve? Shakes? Sundae's? Carl's was the place to go. Located near the bowling alley on Princess Anne Street in Historic Fredericksburg, Carl's has been a tradition in Fredericksburg for years. Even the freshmen learn quickly that, if you want ice cream, Carl's has the most famous around. Though business is often slow in the fall, the line for soft-serve stretches around their parking lot in the warm months. Carl's is certainly one spot that the townspeople and the college students share. The town residents fight not only with students for parking places here, but also with themselves. Though some healthier students opt for TCBY and frozen yogurt, those who like the fattening stuff go to Carl's.

BASEBALL

Rob Menefee (8) rounds third followed closely by Ray Stapleton.

For the third year in a row, the Eagles went undefeated in the Blue-Grey Conference, capturing their third consecutive Conference title. The young MWC squad, without a senior on the roster, also posted impressive wins over Division I William & Mary (6-5) and Division III regional powerhouse, Methodist (8-5).

After being selected to host the South Region finals of the Eastern College Athletic Conference Championships, MWC's successful campaign ended with two disappointing losses to Frostburg State University on May 14-15. Behind freshman southpaw Jason Pierson (Berwyn, PA), the Eagles won the opening game Saturday, 7-6, but fell to the rallying Bobcats, 6-5, in the second half of the twinbill. On Sunday, a nine-run eighth inning by Frostburg proved insurmountable for the MWC team, as the Bobcats held on for the 12-4 win to claim the ECAC Championship. Eagle third baseman Marty McConagha (So./Jefferson, MD) had two doubles in both games two and three and left fielder Rob Menefee (So./Fairfax, VA) doubled in both games.

First baseman Dan Beverly (Jr./Fredericksburg, Va.), named the 1990 ECAC player of the year, led the Eagles at the plate for the second straight year with a .479 batting average — which ranked fifth nationally. Beverly, also an All-Region first-team selection, led the team in hits (49) and RBI (31). Shortstop Ray Stapleton (So./Staunton, VA) was named to the All-Region third-team.

On the mound, Pierson went 4-3, drawing many of the top pitching assignments. Reliever Mike O'Donnell (Jr./Springfield, VA) also had an excellent season with a 4-1 record and a team-high four saves.

Catcher Doug Sheldon stretches to "force" a William and Mary baserunner.

Shortstop Ray Stapleton merits third-team All-Region honors as a sophomore.

Joe Kruper is one of the top pitchers, as well as an outstanding baseman.

Mannin Dodd was a top long reliever for the Eagles.

WOMEN'S SOFTBALL

In its brief three-year history, the softball team (18-3) enjoyed its first winning season, posting impressive wins along the way over Christopher Newport, Virginia Wesleyan and Longwood (Div. II).

Co-captains Sheri Whited (Sr./Annandale, VA) and Kim Glover (So./Staunton, VA) had excellent seasons for the Eagles. Whited, also a field hockey standout, led the team in runs (33), hits (34), stolen bases (4/4) and batting average (.378) from her first base position. On the mound, Glover was 11-9 with an impressive 2.38 ERA.

Two freshmen played key roles for the Eagles. Sherrice Johnson, 7-4 (Partlow, VA), who pitched MWC's first-ever shutout against Christopher Newport on March 4, provided added depth in the pitching department. Cary Bender (Dale City, VA) helped the Eagles at the plate, posting a team-high 27 RBI, eight doubles, six triples and one home-run.

Without a senior on the roster, MWC, under head coach Dee Conway, looks to continue its winning ways next season.

MEN'S BASKETBALL

Freshman playmaker Richie Treger dished out 100 assists.

Perhaps the February 25 game against eventual NCAA-bound Nazareth (NY) says it all — with only eight players total on the Eagle roster, personal fouls prove costly and MWC ends the game, a 102-100 loss, with just four players on the court.

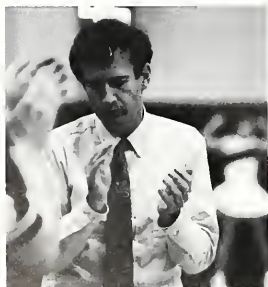

Offensively, sophomore Billy Sigler (LaGrange, KY/10.4 ppg.) and freshman Alvin Buchanan (Richmond, VA/10.2 ppg.) led the Eagles this season. Sigler shot an impressive 40.4% from three-point range, and a season-high 30 points vs. Nazareth at the Eastern Invitational Tournament in Washington, D.C. Buchanan's 48.5% from the field and six rebounds per contest were team-highs. Freshman guard Richie Treger (8.4 ppg./Alexandria, VA) dished out 100 assists and the team's lone junior, Eddie Fields (Falmouth, VA), averaged seven ppg.

Without a senior on the 89-90 team, the Eagles, led by head coach Tom Davies and assistant Dale Portner, look ready to return to turn things around next season.

WOMEN'S BASKETBALL

The 1989-90 campaign was filled with highlights for the women's basketball team of head coach Connie Gallahan. To open the season, MWC captured its second straight Ferrum Tip-Off title by defeating Ferrum in a 73-72 squeaker . . . in the tenth game of the season, the Eagles broke a nine-year drought with Va. Wesleyan, defeating the visiting Marlins, 56-39 . . . in the final game of the regular season, the Eagles knocked off NCAA-bound Marymount (81-76) to claim the Independents' Conference title for the second year in a row . . . and for the first time since the 1984-85 season, the Eagles earned a post-season berth in the Eastern College Athletic Conference tournament. MWC's first-round opponent in this tournament, the familiar Frostburg State Bobcats, had downed the Eagles twice during the regular season (63-56, 80-61). The third matchup proved to be no different as the Bobcats, the eventual ECAC South Region champs, prevailed 85-49.

MWC's lone senior, Jennifer Payne (Troy, VA) capped off a fine career (1986-1990) by leading the team in scoring (11.3 ppg.), and free throw percentage (83.1%). Payne finished sixth in career points and rebounds at the forward position. Sophomore Kim Nagy (Reston, VA/6.1 rpg.) and freshman Chris Paige (Vienna, VA) both averaged 11.2 ppg. for the Eagles — who return all but one from the 89-90 squad . . . the future looks bright!

MEN'S INDOOR OUTDOOR TRACK AND FIELD

The 1989-90 indoor and outdoor seasons were successful ones for both the men's and the women's teams, as well as for many MWC track and field athletes individually. Senior Sean Carpenter (Boysds, MD) and junior Kim Cosgriff (Christiansburg, VA) earned All-American laurels. Carpenter captured indoor honors in the 400-meter dash and also qualified for the fourth time in the 400-meter hurdles by winning that event at the Mason-Dixon Conference Track and Field Championships at Emmitsburg, MD. Cosgriff became MWC's fourth women's All-American by placing fourth in the 5,000 in a school-record time of 17:07.75.

The '89-90 season saw many MWC school records broken — 23 to be exact. Sophomore Matt Boyd (King George, VA) was a major part of this record-breaking campaign. Within one week, Boyd set school records in the 5,000 (15:24.4) and 10,000 (32:00.9). Freshman Jono Crowe (Woodbridge, VA) made his mark early in the record books — with a 181 '1" mark in the javelin and a 6'8" high jump in his first collegiate season. Crowe earned All-Conference honors in both events. Con't. next page.

WOMEN'S INDOOR/ OUTDOOR TRACK

On the Women's squad, freshman Tammy Buhite (Fredericksburg, VA), an indoor qualifier in both horizontal jumps, leaped 17'9.5" in the indoor long jump and 36'6" in the outdoor triple jump to leave her name in the MWC record books. Junior Cheryl Dyer (Proquoson, VA) also set several new records in the middle distance events.

With the talent and experience which returns for the Eagles, the 1990-91 season may just be another record-breaking one.

Audrey Cole was an All-Region runner and an honors Chemistry student.

Freshman Tammy Buhite set two outdoor records in the jumping events.

CROSS COUNTRY

For the fourth time in five seasons, the women's cross country team advanced to nationals by winning the NCAA South/Southeast Regional at Fayetteville, NC, on November 11. Junior Kim Cosgriff (Christiansburg, VA) was medalist in the regional event. Juniors Audrey Cole (Pasadena, MD) and Wendy Durst (King George, VA) also won All-Region honors. The women's team, who took third-place honors at the Mason-Dixon Conference meet, posted a 45-22-1 record (21-3 vs. Div. III opponents before nationals).

The season was filled with second-place finishes for the men's team. They placed in the runner-up spot at the Virginia State II-III meet and in the South/Southeast Regional meet, as the American College of Puerto Rico claimed the regional crown to deny the Eagles a national berth. The men (46-27; 29-4 vs. Div. III) also finished second at the Mason-Dixon Conference meet at Catonsville, MD on Nov. 4. Juniors Travis Jones (Gainesville, VA), Mark Micozzi (Baltimore, MD) and Colin Sullivan (Moravia, NY) won All-Region honors for the Eagles.

RIDING

For the fourth straight year, the riding team of head coach Carol Berry advanced to nationals. This season, the team tied for fifth place with Colby Sawyer among 15 teams in the Cartier Cup competition at St. Lawrence University (NY).

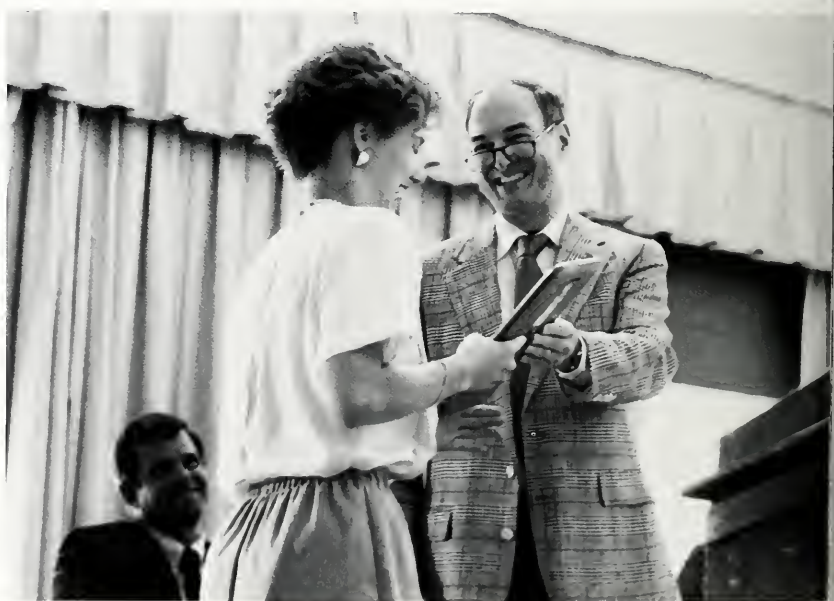

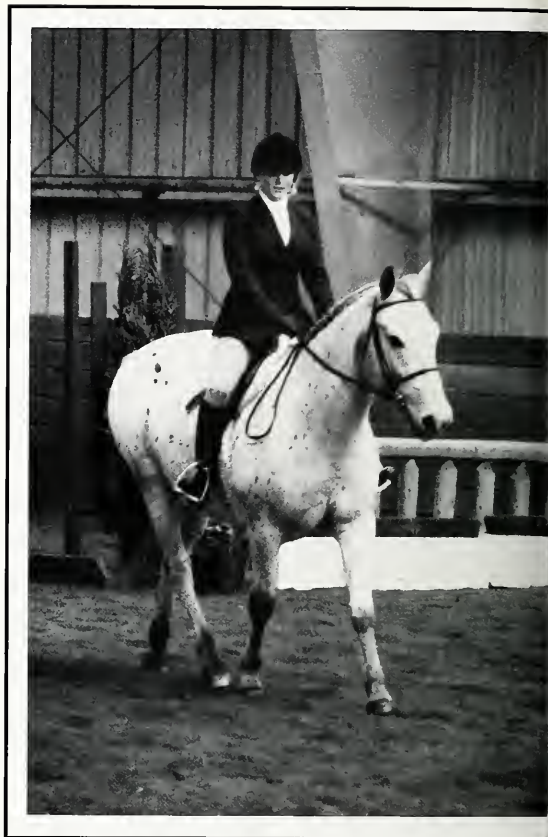

Sophomore Morey Oare (Warrenton, VA) — who advanced to Fitch Cup competition for individuals by virtue of winning the Region VII point competition during the regular season — placed fifth among 15 riders in the Fitch Cup standings. Senior Kathy Underwood (Beaverdam, VA), the regional champion in Intermediated Fences, finished third among 15 riders in that competition.

FIELD HOCKEY

Led by outstanding team defense and senior Suzanne Liotta's 12 goals and 7 assists, the Eagles finished the '89 season with an impressive record of 8-5-3.

Liotta (Valhalla, NY) was chosen as a first-team All-Region selection at forward. Juniors Sheri Whited (Annandale, VA/7 goals, 10 assists) and goalie Lori McCabe (Ocean City, DE/88.3 save percentage), were second-team All-Region performers. McCabe and her defense, headed by first-team All-Region back Rebecca Gadjalo (So./Cherry Hill, NJ), accounted for six shutouts during the season and allowed more than two goals in only two contests.

MWC posted impressive wins over Catholic (1-0) and Roanoke (1-0) and tied Randolph-Macon 1-1 in double overtime.

The Eagles have high hopes for the new decade as they lose only four seniors from the '89 squad.

The Eagles, who lose only three seniors from the 1990 squad, finished the season with a disappointing 1-14 record. However, several athletes had fine seasons offensively. Sophomore midfielder Todd Tarring (Herndon, VA) looked impressive as he led the team with 13 goals and 14 assists. Tarring, a midfielder, set a school record with seven assists in the Eagles 20-3 win over Virginia Wesleyan on March 21. Senior Tom McMahon (Ipswich, MA) and Junior George Asiello (Springfield, VA) added 26 and 25 points respectively for MWC this season. Mick Philp (Jr./Annapolis, MD), the Eagles' leading scorer in '89, missed the majority of the '90 season with a hand injury.

With Philp, Tarring and Asiello returning, the Eagles look ready to improve in '91.

Junior Gina Del Sordo (Richmond, VA) scored four goals in that contest to finish with a team-high 40 on the season.

Junior center Courtney Leonard (Salem, MA) posted a total of 22 goals, including a seven-goal game in a 15-8 win over Western Maryland.

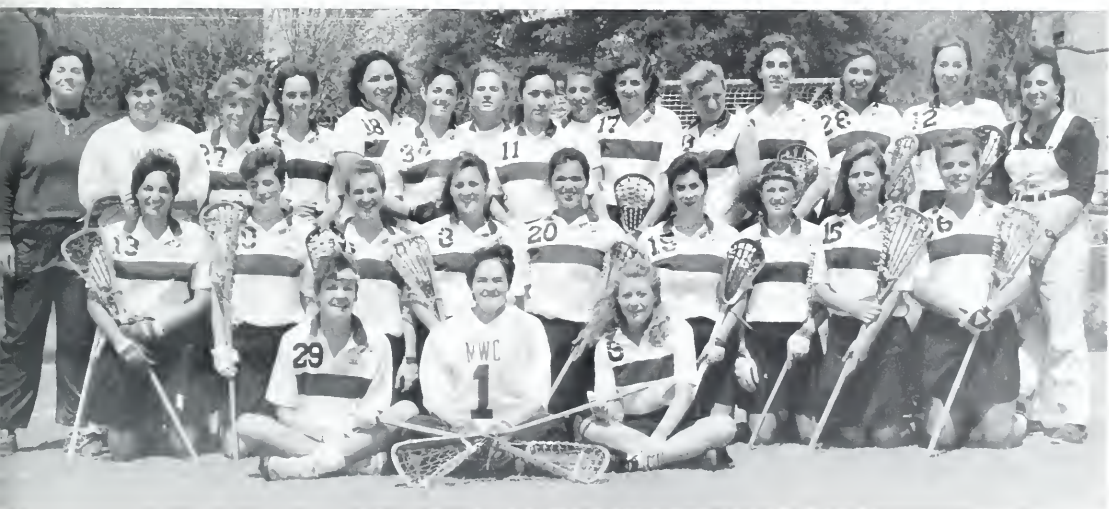

In the cage for the Eagles, goalie Jennifer Payne (Sr./Troy, VA) posted a save percentage of 64%. Third man Liz Wheeler (Jr./Burke, VA), named second team All-American and first team All-Region, anchored a strong defensive unit.

MEN'S SOCCER

For the fourth time in five years, the men's soccer team advanced to the NCAA Division III national tournament after an outstanding 14-2-1 campaign during the regular season. Led by coach Roy Gordon, who for the fourth time in five years was named the South Atlantic Region Division III Coach of the Year, the Eagles recorded their first-ever NCAA win-- a 2-1 victory over Bethany College played at the Battleground field.

In the quarterfinal round which was also played in Fredericksburg, MWC fell 2-0 to Greensboro College. This game marked the finale for six seniors who helped lead MWC to a 57-17-8 record, three NCAA tournament appearances and an ECAC South Region title over four seasons.

Senior co-captains Shane Shackford (Burke, VA), Scott Karr (Atlanta, GA) and Dave Lausten (Springfield, VA), were named to the Division III South Region team. Shackford, a midfielder, earned first-team All-American honors for the third consecutive year, posting a team-leading 27 points during the '89 season. Lausten registered eight goals and five assists from his forward position while Karr (3.46 cumulative GPA), a defensive specialist, became the first recipient of the MWC Male Scholar-Athlete Award.

This first-round game marked junior goalie Diane DeFalco's (Springfield, VA) tenth shutout of the season. DeFalco (1.29 GPG) later earned first-team All-American honors for her outstanding season in goal.

In the quarterfinal round of the national tournament, Methodist handed MWC its first shutout of the season, a 3-0 blanking. The Eagles only two Division III losses were to Methodist (including a 4-3 double overtime loss in Fredericksburg).

The Eagles of first-year coach Kurt Glaeser were led in scoring by sophomore forward Erin Patrick (Arlington, VA/26 points) and junior All-Region forward Ronni Pile (Washington, D.C./24 points). Defensively, Mary Washington looked to DeFalco and All-Region back Kristine Healy (So./Fairfax, VA).

MWC (13-6-1) finished the season with its best-ever #8 ranking. Many promising players return next fall to carry on the Eagles' winning tradition.

MEN'S AND WOMEN'S SWIMMING

Both the 1989-90 men's and women's swim teams enjoyed successful seasons under head coach Paul Richards.

For the second straight year, four women swimmers advanced to NCAA Division III nationals in the 200 medley relay. Seniors Mary Whalen (Fredericksburg, VA) and Kristen Spencer (Fairfax, VA), junior Shannon Brown (Vienna, VA) and sophomore Tammy Cakouros (Falls Church, VA) narrowly missed garnering All-American honors by one place. Spencer, an '89 medley relay All-American, leaves MWC holding eight school-records.

The women's team, 7-2 in dual-meet competition, went undefeated against Division III competition and finished second at the Atlantic States Swimming Championships held February 23-25 at Hollins College.

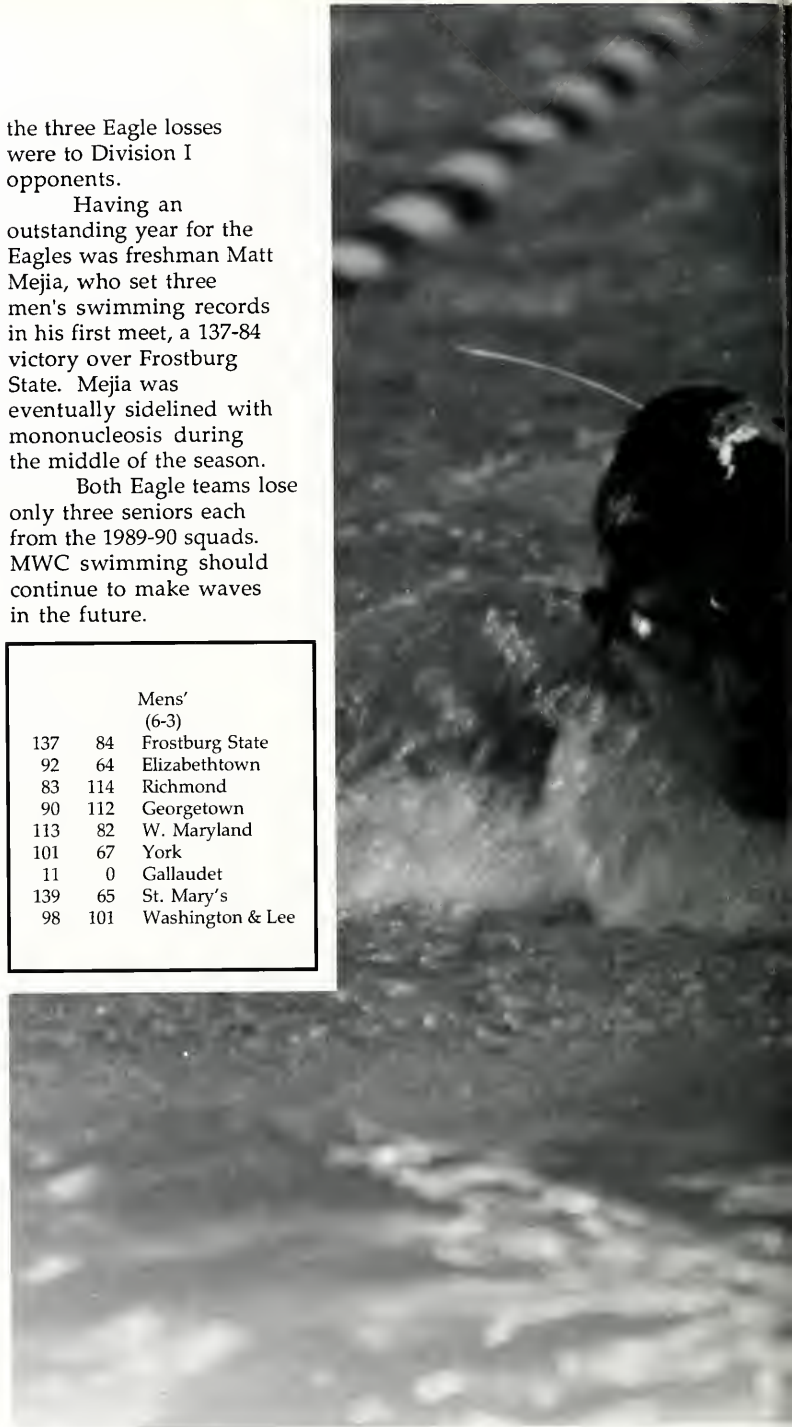

The men swimmers, 6-3 in dual-meet competition, also finished second at the Atlantic States Swimming Championships. Two of the three Eagle losses were to Division I opponents.

Having an outstanding year for the Eagles was freshman Matt Mejia, who set three men's swimming records in his first meet, a 137-84 victory over Frostburg State. Mejia was eventually sidelined with mononucleosis during the middle of the season.

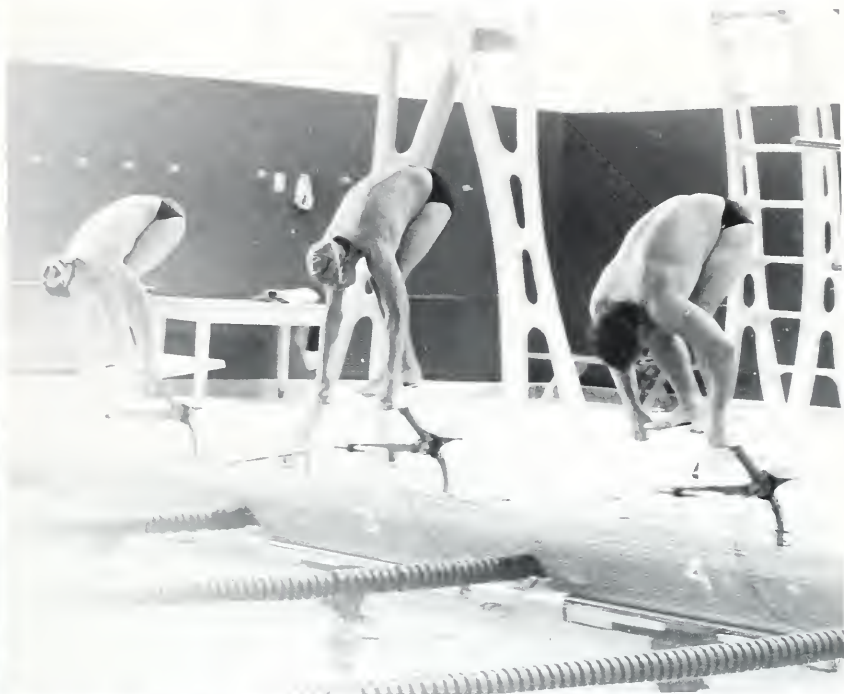

Both Eagle teams lose only three seniors each from the 1989-90 squads. MWC swimming should continue to make waves in the future.

MEN'S TENNIS

A tough schedule, which included matches with four Division I programs and one Division II program, proved challenging to the youthful '90 squad, who went 8-2 vs. Division III competition. The Eagles were unable to upset any of the Div. I schools, but did whip Div. II Longwood 8-1.

Freshman Matt Strickler's (Quakertown, PA) future looks successful as he finished his first collegiate season with seven straight wins and a 14-2 record at #6 singles, the best mark in school history. The #2 doubles team of freshman Chip Goodman (Midlothian, VA) and junior Declan Leonard (Falls Church, VA) posted the top doubles record of 8-4.

WOMEN'S TENNIS

Under the direction of coach Ed Hegmann, the women's tennis team concluded another stellar season, finishing ninth in the NCAA Division III Women's Tennis Championships held May 13-19 in Trenton, NJ. Reaching the national tournament for the ninth time in ten years, the Eagles lost their first-round match 6-3 to St. Thomas (MN), but rebounded to defeat both Franklin & Marshall and Kenyon by 6-3 scores in the consolation bracket.

MWC's #1 singles player, Christy Copper (Jr./Worcester, PA), gained ITCA (Intercollegiate Tennis Coaches Association) All-America status by reaching the quarterfinals in the 32-person national singles competition. Copper, who has posted a three-year record of 92-21 in singles competition, led the Eagles at nationals by winning all three singles matches in team competition and teamed with freshman Laura Graham (Worcester, MA) to win two doubles matches.

The Eagles, who lost only two matches to Division III opponents during the 16-9 campaign, look to make their tenth trip to nationals as they lose only one senior from the '90 squad.

The Eagles posted several impressive wins during the season, including a 8-15, 15-8, 15-5 victory over ranked Gettysburg. MWC also finished fourth in the highly competitive 10-team North-South Tournament at Westminster, MD, but fell to Dickinson 15-6, 15-5, 8-15, 15-10 in the ECAC South Region Semifinals.

Freshmen Tamalyn Reed (Roanoke, VA) and Margaret Hulvey (Abingdon, VA) earned All-Region honors for the Eagles. Reed, a hitter, led the team in kills (217) and service aces (47), while Hulvey, a setter, recorded 15 block assists, 37 service aces and 14 solo blocks for the Eagles.

MWC finished third at the Virginia State Championships, posting impressive wins over Virginia (22-7) and Lynchburg (14-9). Evan Stiles (Jr./Alexandria, VA) was named to the seven member All-Virginia State Team.

To prepare for the 1989-90 season, the returning members of the Eagle squad, Nicole Annis, Kim Cavedo, Amy Mann, Michelle Moncure, Jen Murphy, Pam Smith and Jeff Jakimtschuk attended the Universal Cheerleader Association Camp held August 24-26, 1989 at Rutgers University. Competing against 15 different squads in the small colleges division, the Eagles placed first in the sideline and fight song competitions and second in cheer competition. Co-captains Nicole Annis, Amy Mann, Jen Murphy and Pam Smith led the team to a successful season and its best-ever finish at the UCA Camp.

The Eagles purchased pompons and t-shirts with the money raised from their concession stand, which was held during halftime of men's basketball games.
